CRIMINAL MISCHIEF Identification Needed

On 04/15/2017 Georgetown Police Department officers were dispatched to First Texas Bank located at 480 Del Webb Blvd, Georgetown, TX. The bank manager informed officers that the bank's ATM machine was found open and with fire damage on it. A check of the surveillance video from the night before revealed an individual described as a male, approximately 5'10" tall, weighing approximately 180 pounds, wearing a hoodie, blue jeans and white shoes. The subject had the bottom part of his face covered with some type of sanitary mask and wore protective goggles around the top of his forehead allowing only a partial view of the subject's eyes. The individual had a large backpack containing a portable Oxy Acetylene Torch Kit inside.

Unknown suspect vehicle.
