In October, 2017 and December, 2017 the suspect enters the Arizona Diamond Center and pretends to be a customer. During the October incident the suspect asks to see gold chains and then runs out of the store once he has the jewelry in his hand. In December the same suspect asks to see gold chains and once the case is open he reaches into the jewelry case, grabs four gold chains and runs from store. Investigators are seeking any information in regard to these incidents.
